

RAFFAELLA 2000

DIRECTOR'S SHORT BIO

ANDREE LUCINI

Andree Lucini began her career as a director in 2020 with the Italian production company Mompracem Film, which produced her first short film, Per un'ora d'amore (For an Hour of Love). The short premiered at the Rome Film Festival, in the eleventh edition of Alice nella Città (2022).

In 2022, she was selected for the final international selection of Biennale College Cinema with Raffaella2000, her first feature film, produced by Mompracem Film in collaboration with A. B. Film, an Albanian production company.

In 2023, she directed the short documentary La Ragazza di Praga (Prague's Girl), produced by 8 Production. The short won numerous international awards and was one of the five finalists for the David di Donatello Awards 2025. The film is now available on MUBI.

In 2024, she directed her first feature-length documentary, Piena di Grazia (Madonna for a Day), produced by Mompracem Film in collaboration with Calabria Film Commission. The documentary premiered at the Rome Film Festival (2024) and was selected for the prestigious IDFA Market (2024).

Andree Lucini's work consistently explores contemporary social themes through strong female perspectives, blending fiction and documentary approaches with a sharp cinematic vision.
